From: Dan

Subject: "Action"

I am trusting you to keep the following strictly confidential.

Early in the week I had a talk with B. C. Goodpasture. He is disturbed over Jimmy Lovell's diatribe (which I have not read) appearing in "Action." Brother Goodpasture feels strongly that the article is unfair and untrue. In this connection Prentice Meador, Sr. is unhappy in that Prentice, Jr. is writing for "Action." Meador, Sr., by the way, is a fellow elder with Goodpasture at Hillsboro. I understand Ira North is desirous of beating a hasty retreat too. Apparently Meador and North feel the same way about Jimmy's tirade and I must say I share their opinion. If a fight should ensue there is a possibility that the HOT program would suffer. As you know, Brother Goodpasture is now a supporter of the program.
